

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF TENNESSEE
AT KNOXVILLE

FRANKLIN CHARLES SMITH,

Plaintiff,

v.

No.: 3:05-cv-277
(VARLAN/GUYTON)

SAMYAH GAIL JUBRAN, et al.,

Defendants.

MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

The court is in receipt of a pro se prisoner's civil rights complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and an application to proceed in forma pauperis. It appears from the application that the plaintiff lacks sufficient financial resources to pay the $250.00 filing fee. Accordingly, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(4), the Clerk is DIRECTED to file this action without the prepayment of costs or fees or security therefor as of the date the complaint was received. For the following reasons, the complaint is DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE.

Before a prisoner may bring a civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983, he must first allege and show that he has exhausted all available administrative remedies. 42 U.S.C. § 1997e; Porter v. Nussle, 122 S. Ct. 983 (2002). See also Curry v. Scott, 249 F.3d 493, 501 n.2 (6th Cir. 2001) ("We note, however, that, while it is true we have concluded § 1997e does not impose a jurisdictional bar to federal jurisdiction, we have also concluded that the obligation to exhaust administrative remedies before resort to federal court is a mandatory one.") (citations omitted).

In order to demonstrate that he has exhausted his administrative remedies, "a prisoner must plead his claims with specificity and show that they have been exhausted by attaching a copy of the applicable administrative dispositions to the complaint or, in the absence of written documentation, describe with specificity the administrative proceeding and its outcome." Knuckles El v. Toombs, 215 F.3d 640, 642 (6th Cir. 2000). A prisoner cannot simply state in his complaint that his claims have been exhausted. Id. "In the absence of particularized averments concerning exhaustion showing the nature of the administrative proceeding and its outcome, the action must be dismissed under § 1997e." Id.

Plaintiff is an inmate in the Knox County Detention Facility. The defendants are General Sessions Judge Chuck Cerny, Assistant District Attorneys General Samyah Gail Jubran and Debbie Malone, and six Knox County officers. Plaintiff sets forth numerous incidents involving the various defendants, which he claims violated his constitutional rights. He claims he filed grievances but that all were either destroyed or returned with no disposition. With one exception, however, plaintiff has not provided the court with copies of the grievances he claims to have filed, nor has he stated with particularity the contents of the grievances. Moreover, plaintiff does not claim to have filed a grievance with respect to each alleged unconstitutional act on the part of the defendants. In addition, he states that he did not complete all steps in the grievance procedure, including appeals.

Thus, plaintiff has not shown that he has exhausted all available remedies. Accordingly, his complaint shall be DISMISSED WITHOUT PREJUDICE pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1997e. The court CERTIFIES that any appeal from this action would not be taken in good faith and would be totally frivolous. See Rule 24 of the FEDERAL RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE.

Because the plaintiff is an inmate in the Knox County Detention Facility, he is herewith assessed the civil filing fee of $250.00. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1)(A) and (B), the custodian of the plaintiff's inmate trust account at the institution where he now resides is directed to submit to the Clerk, U.S. District Court, 800 Market Street, Suite 130, Knoxville, Tennessee 37902, as an initial partial payment, whichever is greater of:

(a) twenty percent (20%) of the average monthly deposits to the plaintiff's inmate trust account; or

(b) twenty percent (20%) of the average monthly balance in the plaintiff's inmate trust account for the six-month period preceding the filing of the complaint.

Thereafter, the custodian shall submit twenty percent (20%) of the plaintiff's preceding monthly income (or income credited to the plaintiff's trust account for the preceding month), but only when such monthly income exceeds ten dollars ($10.00), until the full filing fee of two hundred fifty dollars ($250.00) as authorized under 28 U.S.C. § 1914(a) has been paid to the Clerk. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2).

The Clerk is DIRECTED to send a copy of this Memorandum and Order to the Sheriff of Knox County, Tennessee, and the Knox County Law Director, to ensure that the custodian of the plaintiff's inmate trust account complies with that portion of the Prison Litigation Reform Act relating to payment of the filing fee. The Clerk is further DIRECTED to forward a copy of this Memorandum and Order to the court's financial deputy.
